KAPPA CHAPTER, INC., CHI ETA PHI SORORITY, INC.

Presents

INAUGURAL BREAST CANCER AWARENESS PROGRAM

PANELISTS

STEVEN EVANS, MD, Oncology Specialist
LU JUANA FULLER, Director, Women’s Imaging Magee-Women’s Hospital, UPMC
ELAINE JENKINS, RN, Support Group Organizer
MINISTER ARETHA MEGGETT, MLDR, Instructional Designer and Facilitator, CCAC
JACKIE SIMON, Pitt Research on Breast Cancer
MARCIA MARTIN, Vice-President, Gateway Health, Panelist Moderator

Demographically, African American women are being diagnosed at a younger age, by aggressive types of cancer with higher mortality rates. Why is this and what can we do to increase our ability to do better? Join us as we will hear from a panel of UPMC direct service employees sharing collaborative strategies for improving breast health in the African American community.

Sunday, June 24, 2018 Time: 2pm-4:30pm
Hosanna House, 807 Wallace Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15221
Seating is limited. Please RSVP by June 10, 2018 to kappachapterpgh@gmail.com

COMPLIMENTARY MEAL WILL BE SERVED