

PancreasFest 2017

PancreasFest is the annual pancreas research and clinical conference designed for gastroenterologists, surgeons, researchers, and pancreas-specific medical professionals. Lectures and discussion mix with investigative research meetings to further existing research collaborations and to forge new ones.

PancreasFest 2017 will feature Recurrent Acute Pancreatitis (RAP) advancements and special sessions on pancreatic surgery and pediatric pancreas disease as well as pancreatic cancer, chronic pancreatitis, and continuing discussions on pancreatic pain.
